Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 2, 3, and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. For claim 2, it is unclear which connecting structure is being referred to since plural structures have been claimed previously. For claim 3, it is unclear which horizontal shelf is being referred to since plural shelves have been claimed previously. For claim 6, it is unclear which door panel is being referred to since plural panels have been claimed previously. Also for claim 6, it is unclear which post is being referred to since plural posts have been claimed previously.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3, 7, and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Citterio. Citterio teaches a sectional cabinet (Fig. 1) comprising: a rack (2) made of vertical metal posts, wall panels (1,25), drawers (see Fig. 1) and drawer guides (60), horizontal shelves (11, 53) , doors (see Fig. 1) and skirt boards (see Fig. 1). The panels, guides, shelves, doors and drawers being attached to the rack via connecting structures (see Fig. 8, 41, 51-52, 30 and 41).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4, 5 and 9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim 6 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
